

Transfer Options for Rainfrog EIP Members in Japan

Transfers to the Rainfrog EIP Postal Account in Japan can be made by 電信振込 (“Den-shin Harai-komi” and 電信払込み (“Den-shin Furi-Kae”). For members with their own Japanese postal account, the 電信振込 is the recommended method as it can be completed in Japanese or English from an Postal ATM machine for no fee.

ATM transfers can be made from Mon. to Fri. from 9A to 5P (12:30P on Sat.).

For those members without a postal account, it is necessary to enter the Post Office and fill out the Electronic Transfer Deposit Payment Form. Please note that the information appearing in black should be completed exactly as shown below. In addition, please be advised that transfer deposits exceeding 100,000 JPY require a photo I.D. A fee of 525 yen for transfer amounts under 30,000 yen and 735 yen for transfer amounts over 30,000 yen will also be applied by the Post Office.

The form is titled "電信払込み請求書・電信振替請求書" (Electronic Transfer Deposit Payment Form / Electronic Transfer Request Form). It contains the following fields and information:

A red arrow labeled "Personal Information" points to the "ご依頼人" (Sender) section.

Funds transferred to the Rainfrog EIP Postal Account will be immediately credited to the Income or Growth Portfolio as per member request. Credited amounts will be based on Yen/Dollar conversion rates for the day of the transfer deposit. Transferred funds will remain in the Postal Account until the total liquid amount exceeds  yen or until a suitable conversion opportunity is realized. Allocation requests should be sent directly to Rainfrog President Tucker Gilman. All other inquiries regarding transfer deposits can be sent to Rainfrog Treasurer Douglas Emmett.
